

COURSES HELD IN MACERATA FOR LEARNING AGREEMENT

The Department of Law offers a wide range of courses in English and Italian languages. Of course, courses held in English are perhaps the easiest to be attended by incoming students. Pursuant to the very spirit of Erasmus+ programme, we strongly encourage them to take advantage of their stay in Macerata in order to learn Italian language (language courses are offered free of charge at the CLA (Centro Linguistico di Ateneo); see the proper IRO's page), and to take courses in Italian, too.

For this purpose, you can find here the instructions to check the entire teaching offer of the Department of Law, with an explanation of the meaning of the several abbreviations.

Moreover, every year at the Department of Law several visiting scholars from all over the world deliver seminars and lectures in very different areas. Incoming Erasmus+ students are always very welcome to such events, as well as the events of the UniMC International Week which takes place twice a year in November and April.

N.B.: in many cases, attending the seminars allows students to get additional CFU (ECTS) credits. Contact each seminar's organizing teacher for more information.

Besides the courses held at the Department of Law, there are more law-related courses held in English language at other University of Macerata Departments

Incoming students at the Department of Law are free to choose the above mentioned and other courses taught in different Departments as far as the majority of chosen courses are lectured at the Department of Law.

All of the courses above stated are taught at the Macerata Campus. N.B.: the semester of the course is subject to change in different years. If no updated information is available online for the relevant academic year, please contact the course leader.

Students can find the updated syllabus for each course by searching the Teacher's name in the "search" field of the webpage http://docenti.unimc.it/front-page?set_language=en&cl=en -> Teaching, and then choosing the course.

All the courses lectured at the Department of Law

You can find all the courses held at the Department of Law at the following website: <http://giurisprudenza.unimc.it/it/didattica/offerta-didattica/-semestri->

Once there, the prospective incoming student must click on the academic year he/she intends to come to Macerata. If no, or just little information on such year has been uploaded yet, please refer to the information present for the immediately previous year (i.e.: refer to information on "anno accademico 2018-2019" if no information, or just partial information, is available for the academic year 2019-20).
